

Running Travels:

Run the World – One Trip at the Time!

Running Travels

Run the World - One Trip at a Time

Running has enjoyed enormous growth in popularity in recent years. Building on 14 years of experience owning and managing Nature Travels, the Dorset-based specialists for outdoor and adventure holidays in Sweden, Finland and Norway are delighted to launch Running Travels, which is dedicated to serving the holiday needs of the fast-growing running community.

Running Travels is the adventure travel company for runners, offering guided and self-guided running holidays in a range of beautiful and exciting locations. Their aim is to offer a choice of running adventures suitable for all levels

The current range of tours is based in Sweden, Finland and Norway - destinations they have many years' experience of working with - but over the coming months they plan to expand their portfolio with new locations in Europe and beyond.

Head over to our website and start planning your next holiday!

www.runningtravels.co.uk

Photos: Running Travels

